BY BOB PIGUE.
AT FLAHERTY'S Louisville Colonels evened the series with the Tribe at Russell yesterday by piling up eight runs while the Chicks were engaged in accumulating a couple off Henery Jones, of West Point.

The Chicks were traveling along at good speed and looked good to stick with the Colonels all the way. Slim Love, Detroit Tiger pitcher, who is training here with the Chicks, and incidentally nursing a sore arm, pitched the first three rounds for Memphis, and yielded one run and three hits. Slim gave way in the fourth to Tommy Long, a young Memphis left-hander, and Tommy was tapped for a run, making it two for the Colonels. The Chicks had gotten to Henry Jones, Colonels hurler, for a pair of markers which evened things up.

In the seventh Acting Manager Joseph Patrick Slattery sent Dick Meacham, a young Paducah boy, to the hill for Memphis. Sir Richard proved easy picking for the Louisvilleans and before Dick could get the ball into play, the bloody round, four Colonels had crossed the plate. The Louisville lads kept up their barrage and in the ninth two more were sent across the plate. One of the hits off Meacham in the seventh was a home run by Tim Hendryx. Kowler got a triple in the ninth. Henery Jones, who hurled yesterday, was a much better moundman than

Memphis Amateurs Get Ready for 1919 Season

Two Leagues Start Sunday and Others Will Get Away Soon.

THE MEMPHIS Associated Amateurs Baseball division are fast reaching the point where they can announce the entire entries for the amateur baseball league races during the coming season.

These will have two fast Sunday afternoon leagues playing next Sunday. The Liberty league will open their season at Hodges field with a double-header. This league is one of the fastest leagues in the South and has the best of the younger element of baseball players who have shown remarkable ability, especially during the war times, when they were able to show their able substituting ability for the older players gone to the front.

Commercial Forming.

The Commercial league is now forming and has two entries so far, the Goodbar team and the Y. M. C. A. The Goodbar team will meet at Hodges field after two fast clubs to fill out this league and it is hoped to get them on their feet Saturday afternoon.

Another league is now forming, composed of employees of the National Refining Co., Standard Oil Co., Orgill Brothers, and Memphis Gas and Electric Co. This league will use only first class players and possibly be restricted in some manner. These firms have a large number of men who would be candidates for the respective teams and they should have an exceptional fast league.

Baseball Director Hanc calls attention of managers to the rules which allow no manager to have over four teen players signed before the season opens and only 12 allowed after the scheduled second game of the season. Managers having over 14 men signed should notify the director of their release so they can get placed by the playing day.

Let of players signed will be published when contracts are turned in and any player whose name is not shown is considered released.

"Y" Has Material.

The "Y" team playing Saturday ball secured a lot of material for their entry into the fast Saturday afternoon league.

MADDEN RE-ENTERS THOROUGHbred GAME

JOHN E. MADDEN.

Word bobs up in the East that John E. Madden, famous Kentucky horseman, plans to re-enter the thoroughbred game. Madden disposed of his last two seasons' racing with a bang. If the dope turns true, the lure of the game has proved too strong for him and he has headed the call. Madden has furnished thrills in the game for 30 years. He has been a dealer, owner and breeder. Without a doubt he is one of the biggest figures in the sport.

He drew the spotlight for the first time back in 1887, when he started a horse called Class Leader in the Grand Circuit and set up a mark of 2:22 1/2, with the grating.

Two of three years later Madden showed that he was in the game as a dealer, too, by paying $35,000 for Robert McGreggor. Then he jumped to the running game. Hamburg, Yankee, Fitz Herbert, Plaudit, King James, Ormondale, Sir Morin, the great Salvadore and other horses he bred, raced or owned, brought him oodles of fame and money.

How great has been his skill and science is shown by the fact that in his last two seasons Madden produced 547 winners, almost twice as many as his nearest rival.

While Madden has been known principally as a running horse fan, he has produced and owned many great trotters, including Hamburg Belle.

Earl Puryear Wins Over Jack Wolfe In 10-Round Go

PEORIA, Ill., April 8.—Earl Puryear, of Tulsa, Okla., by flashy boxing, gained a popular decision over Jack Wolfe, of Cleveland, in a 10-round bout here last night. The scrap was a great exhibition of scientific boxing, with Puryear the aggressor most of the time and for this reason the fans believed he was the winner. Puryear took a nice lead at the start, but Wolfe finished strong, with the Tulsa lad giving and taking about on an equal basis. There was not a knockdown.

Pete Herman Gets Licked By Al Shubert Easily

BALTIMORE, Md., April 8.—Al Shubert, of New Bedford, Mass., and Pete Herman, of New Orleans, bantamweight champion, fought 10 fast rounds here last night. There was no decision given but the crowd concluded Shubert had the better of the bout.

FOR THE NIGHT

BOB PIGUE.

ETERMINED to plug the gaps in the Chick outfield and infield, President Tom Watkins of the Tribe leaves tonight for some place in Dixie for the expressed purpose of securing a good outfielder and a good pitcher. The Chick president is aware that these positions must be capably filled within a short time, and he is carrying his money bag with him on his quest for the purpose of going to a quiet amount of real estate in Dixie for the purpose of securing a good outfielder and a good pitcher.
